FACTS

Synopsis

Bavaria in the 50ies. The life of young Maria is suddenly changing when she's finding the body of a woman. The scientist Dr. Robert Holzlein and the American Captain John Welles, were commissioned to solve the obvious murder case. Trouble is in the air as both are attracted to beautiful Maria. The Captain finds a dead alien while inspecting a crop circle and the scientist discovers the connection between the found corpses and the crop circle. Before he's able to alert the population, the undead aliens raise their tombs underneath the crop circles to destroy humanity. Robert and John are going to realize that their only chance is to work together against the threatening danger.
